

Curriculum Vitae – Fr. Byron Miller, C.Ss.R.

- Originally from Crowley, Louisiana
- Attended the Redemptorist Parish and Redemptorist Grade School in Crowley. Graduated from Notre Dame High School, 1979.
- Attended University of Southwestern Louisiana (USL) in Lafayette, LA, for two years, majoring in Communications; also, attended one summer session at UCLA, before entering the Redemptorist Seminary in Wisconsin. Received a Bachelor's in Philosophy from the Redemptorist Seminary, Holy Redeemer College, in 1984.
- Entered the Redemptorist Novitiate and professed vows as a Redemptorist in 1985.
- Received Masters of Divinity in 1990 at Oblate School of Theology, San Antonio, Texas.
- Ordained a Redemptorist priest in Crowley, May 26, 1990.
- Assigned to Holy Redeemer Retreat Center, Lacombe LA from 1990-1992.
- Assigned as Parochial Vicar at Holy Ghost Parish, Houston from 1992-1993.
- Assigned Vocation Director for the Redemptorists of the New Orleans Vice Province from 1993-1999 in San Antonio, Texas.
- Assigned Formation Director of Liguori House Seminary in San Antonio from 1995-1999.
- Began Doctor of Ministry studies in 1998; completed essential classroom coursework through Jan. 2000 in D.Min. Program at Oblate School of Theology, San Antonio, Texas; withdrew from program due to New Orleans transfer.
- Appointed Executive Director of the National Shrine of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos and Vice Postulator of the Seelos Canonization Cause on January 1, 2000.

- Appointed Local Superior of the Redemptorist Community in San Antonio TX from August to December 1999; Appointed Local Superior of the Redemptorist Community in New Orleans from January 1, 2000 to September 1, 2005.
- Editor of monthly Seelos Center News, distributed to over 26,000 recipients in all fifty states; author of Seelos-related books, booklets, and pamphlets. Contributed articles to Modern Liturgy and Liguorian magazines; monthly columnist in 2006 & 2007 for the Liguorian, a leading U.S. Catholic magazine with a quarter-million readership.
- Script Consultant for Seelos: Tireless Intercessor, a professional documentary on the life and impact of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos, produced in 2006 by the Mercy Foundation, as seen on EWTN.
- 2006-2008 Board Member for Liguori Publications, the largest Catholic publishing house in the country; Past Board Member of WLAE Catholic Studio of New Orleans.
- Elected Member to the Extraordinary Council of the Redemptorist Denver Province, a leadership and decision-making body for the 200+ priests & brothers of the Denver Province, 2005-2007.